LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

On May 24, 1984 the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania officially granted University status to La Salle College.

The name La Salle University may take some time getting used to, but the institution will continue to serve the community as it has since its founding in 1863.

"As our destiny is in our own hands, there is every reason to be confident that we can retain and enhance our emphasis on the excellent teaching of undergraduates and on the relaxed accessibility of faculty and administrators to students," said La Salle President Brother Patrick Ellis. "Class size, activities, availability of computers and the like should not change except for the better."

Founded by the Brothers of Christian Schools, La Salle is named for St. John Baptist de La Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers. The institution which began as a one-building academy in center city Philadelphia is now a 78-acre, 36-building campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers 212 with degree programs offered in Arts, Science and Business. With a student-faculty ratio of 16-to-1 and an average class size of 21, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' goals for La Salle.

Among the major buildings on campus are the David Leo Lawrence Memorial Library; the Roland Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Physics, and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building; and the Student Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Hall. The facility includes the 1700-seat Joseph Kirk Natatorium, three regulation-sized basketball courts, a 12 laps/mile suspended running track, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 200 public and private schools in 30 states, and 20 countries. The dormitories house more than 1100 students in 11 residence halls and two apartment complexes. More than 75% of the student body goes on to graduate study, with more than 1000 degrees conferred annually on day and evening division seniors.

La Salle students have been awarded 56 Fulbright grants since 1970, a total exceeded by only one other institution in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top 6% nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D.'s (58th of 943 colleges and universities).

"I am certain that as a university, La Salle not only will continue, but expand, that tradition of excellence," said Pennsylvania Governor Dick Thornburgh on granting University Status to La Salle.

It is a tradition that is being renewed by La Salle University.

PRESIDENT BROTHER F. PATRICK ELLIS, F.S.C., Ph.D.

Brother Patrick Ellis was installed as President of La Salle College on January 1, 1977 and now has the honor of leading La Salle into a new era as a University.

A member of the Brothers of the Christian Schools since 1946, Brother Patrick first joined the La Salle staff in 1960 as a professor of English. He has been associated with La Salle since that time, except for a term as principal of La Salle High School in Miami, FL from 1962-1964. He returned to Philadelphia in 1964, and was the Director of La Salle's Honors Program until 1969 when he was named Director of Development and Vice President of the Corporation.

A native of Baltimore, MD, Brother Patrick graduated from Calvert Hall College High School in 1946, received an A.B. degree in English from Catholic University in 1951, and earned his master's degree and doctorate in English from the University of Pennsylvania.

He first was assigned to the Philadelphia area in 1951 when he joined the staff at West Catholic High School for Boys. In the nine years he was there he served as Chairman of the English Department and as Guidance Director.

Active in numerous national and local organizations, Brother Patrick is a member of the Board of Trustees of Manhattan College, St. Mary's College (Winona, MN), and St. John's College High School (Washington, DC).

He is past chairman of the Board of Directors of the 220-member Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities; President of the James A. Finnegan Foundation, which fosters state government internships; and Chairman of Philadelphia's Campus Boulevard Corporation, a cooperative organization of institutions located adjacent to La Salle.

Brother Patrick is 1986-87 Chairman of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities, and on the Boards of the American Council of Education; the Greater Philadelphia First Corporation; the Philadelphia Urban Affairs Partnership; the Independence Hall Association; the Mayor's Commission on the 21st Century; the Police Athletic League; the Salvation Army; and Catholic Social Services of Philadelphia. He has recently completed terms on the boards of the Afro-American Historical Museum; the Community Leadership Seminar; and the World Affairs Council.

Brother Patrick has authored numerous articles in educational publications, and conducted a "How to Read Great Books" series for the "University of the Air" on Philadelphia's WFIL-TV in 1961 and 1965. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, he was president of the Phi Beta Kappa Association of Philadelphia for two terms.

An avid devotee of the arts all his life, Brother Patrick has performed in several productions over the years, the last being "Knickerbocker Holiday" at La Salle's Summer Theater in 1971. His sketches of local scenes frequently adorn his personal notes and Christmas cards. He has sung the National Anthem at a number of La Salle basketball games, and before several Philadelphia Phillies games at Veterans Stadium.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS BOB MULLEN

Bob Mullen, a successful coach and administrator at two colleges, was named La Salle's fourth Director of Athletics on July 28, 1986.

Mullen, 47, is a graduate of Northern Illinois University, with a Bachelor of Science degree in History and a Master of Science degree in Guidance and Counseling. His first head coaching positions were at Galena (IL) High School, where his basketball teams had a 189-59 overall record and won seven straight conference championships. He was also Head Coach of football (18-6 record), golf (three conference titles), cross country and baseball.

In 1974 he was appointed Director of Athletics and Head Coach of basketball and golf at Loras College in Dubuque, IA. Both the basketball and golf teams reached NAIA finals under his leadership. He also instituted a Division III football program at Loras, and aided in planning and development of both a civic arena and intramural center.

In 1981 Mullen was named Director of Athletics at the University of Southern Colorado in Pueblo, CO. Among his accomplishments at USC were: European tours for both the men's and women's basketball teams; promotion of an NAIA first-round football playoff game which set a national record for attendance; and initiation of a wrestling program which ranked second in the NAIA after only three years as a varsity sport. He also served as interim Director of Alumni Affairs for one year due to his success in that area in relation to the Athletic Department.

As a college coach, Mullen received NAIA District Coach-of-the-Year laurels for both basketball and golf while at Loras College, and had basketball teams visit and compete in 10 foreign countries.

An active administrator on the national level, Mullen is currently a voting delegate to the United States Olympic Committee-United States Sports Council; was President of the NAIA Athletic Directors Association; and is a Division II College Representative to the Executive Committee of NACDA.

Mullen and his wife Marcia have four children: daughter Sherri is married with two daughters and lives in Dubuque, IA; son Scott is a junior at Drake University; daughter Kelly is a freshman at La Salle; and son Rob is a sophomore at Springfield High School.

Bob Mullen succeeds Bill Bradshaw as Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation, and is the fourth man to hold that position since World War II. Jim Henry was AD from 1941-1969. Jack Conboy followed him and remained in the position until 1977, when he was succeeded by Bradshaw.

HEAD COACH BILL (SPEEDY) MORRIS

Speedy Morris and winning basketball teams have been synonymous for nearly 20 years.

As Head Coach of Roman Catholic High School (14 years, 347 wins), William Penn Charter School (two years, 40 wins), and La Salle's women's basketball team (two years, 43 wins), Speedy Morris has become a legend in Philadelphia basketball.

In August, 1984, after 16 seasons and 387 victories as a boys' high school coach, La Salle offered Morris his first opportunity to become Head Coach of a collegiate Division I team, the Explorer women's team, which had an 11-18 record in 1983-84. Like every Speedy Morris team, La Salle's women quickly became winners: a school-record 22 victories in 1984-85, 21 wins, a Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Championship and NCAA Tournament berth in 1985-86.

On March 21, 1986, Speedy Morris was appointed the 16th Head Coach for La Salle men's basketball. "Mr. Morris has proven himself an exceptional basketball coach throughout his career," said Brother Patrick Ellis, President of La Salle. "In his two years at La Salle, he has continued to be that, and has shown that he is also an excellent teacher of young people."

"Every basketball coach wants to become a head coach of a Division I team," said Morris. "La Salle offered me that opportunity two years ago by asking me to coach the women's team, and has now offered me a second opportunity. I appreciate this faith in my abilities, and I will work as hard as I always have to continue the La Salle tradition of great basketball."

Morris, a 1960 graduate of Roman Catholic High School, began his coaching career at his alma mater in 1967. In 14 seasons, his teams had a record of 347-82, won six Philadelphia Catholic League championships, one Philadelphia City Championship, two National Catholic Tournament titles, and four times won better than 30 games in one season.

In 1983 and 1984, his William Penn Charter teams won 40 of 54 games, and an Interacademic League championship in 1984. That brought Speedy Morris' career high school coaching record to 387-96, an average of better than 24 wins per season.

His two La Salle women's teams set a total of 13 team or individual school records, with three 1986 seniors surpassing the 1000 career point plateau last season. With his appointment to become Head Men's Basketball Coach, Speedy Morris, 43, added another line to the legend...first Head Coach to move from a women's Division I basketball team to a men's Division I basketball team.

A native of Philadelphia, Morris and his wife Mimi reside in Manayunk, with their four children, Keith, Brian, Margaret Mary and Christopher.

The 30-year-old Mihalich is pursuing a master's degree in athletic administration at Temple University. In addition to his coaching duties at La Salle, he is also a part-time faculty member in the college's Mathematics department.

He led the team with 113 assists, and totaled 611 points in three varsity seasons.

Following graduation, the 38-year-old Dunphy was a part-time assistant coach at Army for one season, and later was head coach at Malvern Prep for four seasons, winning the Philadelphia Interacademic League championship in 1976 and 1977.

As a four-year basketball starter, he set a school career assists record, and scored 1324 points, 5th highest all-time at Wheeling. He was an NAIA Honorable Mention All-American last season, and captained the Cardinals for three seasons.

Doc, 22, lives in Northeast Philadelphia.

RICH PRENDERGAST

A 1960 La Salle graduate, Rich Prendergast was a volunteer assistant coach with Speedy Morris' women's team during the last two years, and now assumes similar duties with the men's team. Like Morris, he is a veteran coach of the Philadelphia CYO and Catholic League high school system. Before joining the La Salle staff he had coached the women's basketball team at Hallahan High School to two Catholic League playoff appearances in four seasons.

Last May, Rich was presented the Mary S. O'Connor Loyalty Award for dedication and service to La Salle's women's inter-collegiate athletic programs.

POST-SEASON TOURNAMENTS

Buddy Donnelly drives against Dayton in the 1952 NIT Championship game.

La Salle's 1954 NCAA Champions returning from Kansas City.

1954 NCAA CHAMPIONS

La Salle Beats Bradley, 92-76,
For NCAA Title

La Salle Routs Navy to Win NCAA Eastern Final

La Salle Beats Penn State, Enters NCAA Title Game

March 8 — Buffalo (NY) Memorial Auditorium
LA SALLE 76 — Fordham 74 (ot)

Fran O'Malley, on a pass from Tom Gola, layed in the winning points as the Explorers opened their trek to the NCAA title with an overtime win over Fordham. Three weeks earlier, La Salle had beaten the Rams, 61-56, at the Philadelphia Arena. Gola finished with 26 points and 16 rebounds in the NCAA win, while O'Malley scored 13.

March 12 — The Palestra
LA SALLE 88 — North Carolina State 81

Gola and Charlie Singley each scored 26 points as the Explorers advanced to the Eastern Regional final with a win over the Atlantic Coast champion Wolfpack. Gola also had 26 rebounds. Again, the NCAA win was a repeat of an earlier La Salle win, 83-79, at North Carolina State.

March 13 — The Palestra
LA SALLE 64 — Navy 48

Gola again led the way with 22 points and 24 rebounds. A 22-8 scoring margin in the third period gave the Explorers a 43-29 lead going into the last 10 minutes. Singley had 16 points in the championship victory.

March 19 — Kansas City (MO) Municipal Auditorium
LA SALLE 69 — Penn State 54

Frank Blatcher, who had scored 25 points in the previous three games, matched Gola's total of 19 points in the NCAA semifinal victory over the Nittany Lions. Gola also had 17 rebounds as La Salle led from the opening tap. Coach Ken Loeffler was almost apologetic after the game, explaining, "We weren't interesting but what can you do against a zone (defense)."

March 20 — Kansas City
LA SALLE 92 — Bradley 76

Trailing 43-42 at halftime, La Salle exploded for 30 points in the third period to open a 15-point lead and coast to the NCAA title. Gola scored 9 points, Blatcher 8 in the period. Blatcher, a 24-year-old sophomore Navy veteran, and Singley, another sophomore, each scored 23 points in the championship game, while Gola again had as many points as rebounds (19). In the five NCAA Tournament games, Gola averaged 22.8 points and 20.4 rebounds; Singley averaged 17.2 points in the tournament, Blatcher 13.4, O'Malley 10.2, and Frank O'Hara, the only senior on the roster, 6.8.

LA SALLE COLLEGIAN

Basketball Champs of the Past

Many times during the basketball season the Collegian has mentioned that this was La Salle's Golden Jubilee year in the cage sport. Taking the National Invitation Tournament crown this year was certainly a fitting climax to fifty years of basketball at La Salle College.

But what about the past? What have La Salle teams done in the past? We know that for the last five years we have been right up there with the nation's top quintets. But what about the teams of the distant past?

Here it is! (Picture below) The first basketball team in the history of La Salle College — the Explorer team of 1902. You didn't know they had basketball way back there! They sure did. And furthermore La Salle had a championship team

"Will you see the players well bestowed? Do you hear, let them be well used; for they are the abstracts and brief chronicles of the time..." William Shakespeare, Hamlet

REGULAR SEASON TOURNAMENTS

Since the 1952-53 Holiday Festival, La Salle has played in 31 different tournaments during the regular season. Explorer teams played in 8 Quaker City Tournaments at The Palestra and The Spectrum between 1962 and 1972, and 8 Holiday Festivals in Madison Square Garden, beginning in 1952, last appearing in 1973.

The AMI Classic (Miami, FL, November 28-29) and the Hawaiian Tropic Classic (Daytona Beach, FL, December 19-20) will be the 32nd and 33rd regular-season tournaments for La Salle Basketball. The Explorers have played in three tournaments in Florida in the past, Miami's Orange Bowl Classic in 1957 (5th place); the 1974 Big Sun Tournament in St. Petersburg (3rd place); and the Miller High Life Classic at Tampa during the 1984-85 season (3rd place). La Salle will also play in the second Jostens Philadelphia Classic at The Palestra on December 26-27.
